How to Make Money During College: How to Make Money and Gain Marketable Skills, Get a Job, Earn Money and Save it. Making Money in College. Th The most interesting college question is whether you can really make money while attending college. Many students believe they can not make money while in college because all of their free time and tuition money is going towards paying tuition. Some students go so far as to assume that college is a time to rest and play, not to make money. But this is a big misconception. In fact, the old adage is true. You can make money while attending college. However, making money as a college student is completely different than making money while still in high school. You have to prepare for your future and get involved with your community before you are old enough to start a career. In college, you have to make money in order to stay in college and pay for your education. While you are in college, it is easier to make money, but not because you are young and stupid; the opposite is true. Here are 3 ways to make money while attending college. By Schooling Yourself: Before I go any further, make sure you are taking classes that will help you achieve the goal of making money. If you have a job lined up that will pay you for your effort, you will be less motivated to work on side projects. Before we begin, you are going to make a lot of money in college, but it is important to be realistic. You will not be making as much as you will be making after college if you want to make a full time career out of what you are doing. Invest your time in classes that will help you build a business portfolio with a side of income. By Starting a Business: Do you like to help people and do you want to make a living? If you answered yes to these questions, you might want to start a small business. If you find the right niche, you can really make a ton of money. And the best part is you don't even have to hire anyone because you can do all of the work yourself. By Getting a Job: This is just something to get you moving. College and a job is the best of both worlds because you
