Dog Trainer Your Pup's New Companion All day, every day Your dog deserves a day filled with joy, play and companionship. A Dog Daycare! As the famous comedian and pundit, George Carlin, famously quipped, "Life Is what happens to you while you're making other plans." And those plans aren't going to include worrying about your dog most of the day -- or at least trying to. At Dog Daycare, we understand the unique relationship between dogs and their owners. We know that your dog needs to feel like part of the family, and when your dog is engaged in her own activities, she is less likely to get into accidents in the house or chew her owner's favorite shoes. So, don't stress when you plan on letting your dog run wild in the yard -- you can do that every day and know your dog will spend the day safely. At Dog Daycare, we welcome the chance to be a second part of your dog's day. Should I get a doggy daycare? There are reasons to get a dog daycare, and there are reasons why you might want to know more about one. Better than daycare -- Your dog receives a full day of play and interaction with friendly dogs, and that's one thing you can't get at a daycare. Sleep and exercise -- Dog daycares offer opportunities for your dog to play, run and stretch during the day, and that keeps her up to date on important routines like a walk or a grooming session. Maintain the bond -- Dog daycares often have opportunities to meet each dog up close and personal, and that can strengthen the bond that's so important to your dog. Transportability -- Dog daycares get around on mini-motorcycles or playgrounds. That means you can bring your dog along for a road trip in the City or a cruise up north, or simply put a book or a picnic lunch in a dedicated doggy bag. What are the differences between doggy daycare and kennel? Traditionally, a kennel is the place where dogs go to socialize while waiting to be adopted. Perhaps, you only ever had a home with a dog, and didn't work with them at all. Or perhaps, you heard of a rescue and wanted to adopt a dog, but you didn't know how to go about it. A k
