Haematologists are confronted daily with patients and often questions that concern vascular disease. A practical model has been developed for the diagnosis and treatment of patients with vascular disease. A vascular laboratory is organised to take a stepwise approach. Some of the issues (such as prosthetic heart valves) are clearly dealt with by clinical haematology, but the majority of issues require specialised laboratory techniques. The laboratory can provide the support to ensure that the correct tests are performed, interpreted appropriately and analysed in a timely manner. In this way, the haematologist can provide a diagnosis that can determine a rational treatment plan.

PHILADELPHIA (CBS) — The Philadelphia Eagles have had a ball dropping out of the air and heading to fans' pockets in the past month — and it's not just the custom-designed Super Bowl rings that have been making waves. Fans have been selling the custom-designed flags that have their team's name and logo on them. They've dropped prices to an unbelievable degree. One fan told PFT the flag he's selling for $150 is selling for just $20. #Eagles fans: you guys are making a killing on the 42-star National flag #FlyEaglesFly pic.twitter.com/YYVrhqkn1 — Joe Russo (@DeepestThought) February 3, 2018 "I think it's a big value," the fan told PFT.

“That flag sells for $30 now.” The Eagles won the Super Bowl and now the Eagles fans are flooding their eBay and Craigslist accounts with their new flags for a fraction of their previous price. One guy who’s a real estate agent posted the flag listing just this week for $50. It sold in a matter of minutes. eBay seller: A listing for an Eagles flag that sells for $50 went for $99 in 2 minutes on eBay on Feb. 3, 2018. (Kathy Kmonicek/CBS Philly) In c6a93da74d
